SAMPLE CASE STUDY ON LOCAL MIGRANTS' LABOUR ECONOMY

This case study has been done in Baleri city, for the city consists of various sectors of people immigrated for employ- ment opportunity. In labour market various issues such as, jobsecurity, economy development, poverty alleviation and improves lifestyle are challengeable issues. This migration it not just about an individual life, but behind every migrant is a family, who depend on this person for everything. For many of the immi-grants the new life in the new environment has become better than before; here are the migrants from three different States and face the challenges for their livelihood.

As a tool for collecting data the researcher followed face to faceinterview method.

Case Study: 1.

Name : Shyamrao (Original name has beenchanged)

Gender : Male
Age 36
Qualification : 8th
Marital status : Married

This case study is about a migrant from Nepal who is a Gurkha (night watchman). Gurkha, as night patrol used to protect and guard every street. The reason behind his migration is the poor economic condition, which is not sufficient to at least meet the basic needs of the family. Therefore he forced to migrate wherethere is place for a better survival. He came here in the year 2002 and works and live till now. His father also was worked as Gurkha, and after his old age the respondent took his place as Gurkha by dropping out his higher secondary schooling. He is married, having two children, studying 4th, 5th standards respectively. He is staying as joint family in a rented house; they called themselves as Gurkha but they have support from local police station and some local politicians. He has responsibility of reporting local police station about the critical analysis of a particular area. He earned his living by wandering particular streets in the middle of the night. For his voluntary service he col-lects money from the households of the respective streets he watches. Apart from this financial source as Gurkha he did nothave any other financial support.

The beginning of the month for the first two weeks he collected a sum of Rs.5 or 10 from each house. The area of his patrol con-sists of more than 650 houses. So it will come around Rs.3250. It may differ every month. This is his monthly wage to run the fam-ily. He has to pay his rent, school fees, and has to look into his basic needs. His problem is, during nights he goes round the streets but when he is going for collection, people refuse to give money. Only a few give money in time, but many ask him to come later. He could manage for the first two weeks with a need-ful fund flow, but the last two weeks he would be in trouble. He manages to speak the local language and working all nights is a difficult task but he does this for his survival. He is not sure about his next day life. As he does not know any other work and peo-ple of that area recognized his father and hence him as Gurkha he had to continue with the same work. Amidst all difficulty he feels that the present life is better than the past after his immi-gration, but everyday he fights the battle of his life.

Case Study: 2.

Name : Hari Ram (Original name has beenchanged)

Gender : Male
Age : 31yrs
Qualification : 11th STD
Marital status : Married

Job : Carpet and Bed Sheet Street Vendors.

India is a big country with many states and different culture and policies. Labours move from one country to another, searching better life. He is a migrant labour from Bihar, came 4 years backto Tiruchirappalli. He came here because his relative was hereselling the same product as Bed sheets and Carpets. Some of his relatives are there in Bangalore selling the same. His family is living there in Bihar. He is survived with his aged mother and father with his wife and 2 children. One child is studying 4th STD. The second one is 2 years old. He is the bread winner in his family. His father was a coolie and due to his old age and poorhealth condition he could not go for any work so Hari Ram only is sending the money for the basic needs. He says that daily hehas to carry more than 15 Kgs of bed sheets but only a few couldatleast see the products and even then hesitate to buy the same and even if they make up their mind to buy will reduce the same to half the prize we say. So it is very difficult to convince the customers for buying the product. Another major difficulty they face is they could sell the blankets and carpets only during winter season, therefore they could sell the same only in those periods and in the off season he visits his family for a week and come back to sell cotton chudidar items. With lot of difficulties, he managed to stay in a small rented house. He has no recre-ation time. The language is also a great problem. He managesto speak very little Tamil and so could not continue to argue with the customers in Tamil for a long time. Living amidst the Tamil people for a whole day is very difficult for him. With great diffi-culty and with unsure job security he is surviving alone. He feels very lonely and no moral support and nobody is to take care of him when he is sick. It is his battle.
